Cultural Asset Report Card

The Arts, Culture and Heritage department supports the local creative community through the commissioning and maintenance of public art, providing access to cultural facilities, maintaining heritage preservation, creating community engagement opportunities and funding from grants and awards.

Recovery Cost

Public art- $500,000
Archives Collection -$175,000
Equipment Inventory $33,300
Total- $703,300.00

Cost to Replace Assets listed in Poor Condition

$15,000

Average Condition

GOOD

Archives Inventory

Artifacts-150
Newspapers-3516
Donor Fonds-171

Public Art Inventory

Paintings- 12
Murals/Utility Boxes-39
Carvings- 1
Weaving-1
Pottery-1
Sculptures-4

Equipment Inventory

Pop-up tents/tent bags- 4
Power distribution box- 1
Movable stage-1
Outdoor LED stage lights-4
Marley dance floor rolls-5
Bow flags and stands-5

 This report does not encapsulate any cultural assets that are facilities (eg. Rockwood Lodge). Concurrently assets such as banners and banner stands are not represented. Recovery cost is calculated from insurance and appraisal price.

Staff assigned to manage assets: Manager of Community Services

Data Confidence Rating

A- Verified Condition and Analytical Techniques
B- Observed Condition
C- Age Only
D- Historical Knowledge
F- Assumptions